SELECTING WORDS

Directions (for the following 12 items):

In the following two passages, at certain points you are given a choice of three words in a bracket, one of which fits the meaning of the passage. Choose the best word from each bracket. Mark the letter, viz., (a), (b) or (c), relating to this word on your Answer Sheet. Examples Y and Z have been solved for you.

Y. The (a) boy was in the school in Simla. (a) She was homesick.

(b) horse

(b) It.

(c) dog

(c) He

Explanation : Out of the list given in item Y, only boy is the correct answer because usually a boy, and not a horse or a dog, attends school. So (a) is to be marked on the Answer Sheet for item Y. A boy is usually referred to as "he", so for item Z, the letter (c) is the correct answer. Notice that to solve this kind of item you have to read the preceding or succeeding sentences of the given passage.

COMPREHENSION

Directions (for the following 18 items):

In this section there are six short passages. Each passage is followed by questions based on the passage. Read each passage and answer the questions that follow.

Passage

Galileo desired to use his telescope to make more discoveries in the heavens, but his instrument was too small. He made another and larger telescope which magnified eight times, and then another which magnified thirty times, and pointed it at the moon. His heart leaped with joy, for he saw what no human eye had ever before seen — ranges of mountains, deep hollows, and broad plains! He turned his telescope on the planets, and found they appeared with disks like the moon at a quarter full. He turned it on the Milky Way, and beheld innumerable tiny stars.

103. Galileo made several telescopes because

- (a) he needed all of them to explore the heavens
- (b) he wanted to compare the findings obtained from different telescopes
- (c) the earlier ones he made were not powerful enough
- (d) only some of them could magnify the stars

104. When Galileo saw what no human eye had

- (a) was overjoyed
- (b) was shocked
- (c) felt humble
- (d) was very proud

My father was passionate about two things : education and socialism. He was himself a born teacher. Indeed, he could never restrain himself from teaching, and as a small boy I was frequently embarrassed by his desire to instruct everybody - people in railway carriages, for instance - though I realized even then that it was an innocent desire, quite free from vanity. He was equally ready to receive instruction. Education, to men of his generation and temperament, was something it has largely ceased to be nowadays. It was the great golden gateway to the enchanted realms of the mind.

- - was a school teacher
  - was an educationist and socialist
  - used to travel a lot
  - (d) loved teaching
- 106. The author often felt embarrassed by the behaviour of his father because
  - he taught badly
  - (b) he taught even at odd places
  - he wanted to show off his learning
  - (d) he lost self-control while teaching

- 105. The author wants us to know that his father 107. To the generation of the writer's father, education was
  - an old fashioned enterprise (a)
  - (b) the result of good teaching
  - (c) an exploration of the world imagination
  - (d) one aspect of socialism
  - 108. From the passage it is clear that the author
    - (a) loved and admired his father
    - disapproved his father's love of teaching (b)
    - thought of him as vain (2)
    - considered education his father's inadequate

We started looking on the ground for blodd, hair, or a drag mark that would lead us to the deer killed by the tiger. We had proceeded a hundred yards, examining every foot of the ground, and going dead slow, when Mothi, just as I turned my head to look at him, started backwards, screaming as he did so. Then he whipped round and ran for dear life, beating the air with his hands as if warding off a swarm of bees and continuing to scream as he ran. The sudden and piercing scream of a human being in a jungle where a moment before all has been silent is terrifying to hear. Instinctively I knew what had happened. With his eyes fixed on the ground, looking for the blood or hair of the kill, Mothi had failed to see where he was going, and had walked towards the tiger.

- 109. Mothi and the narrator were scanning the [11]. In the context of the passage 'kill' means ground because
  - they were looking for the tiger
  - (b) the forest was full of unpleasant surprises
  - they were trying to discover the tiger's footprints
  - they were looking for marks left by the (d) tiger's prey
- 110. Mothi began to scream when he
  - (a) was attacked by a swarm of bees
  - (b) was frightened by the sight of blood
  - (c) came face to face with the tiger
  - (d) stumbled on the tiger

- - the act of killing (a)
  - (b) an animal killed by the tiger
- (c) a human being killed by the tiger
- (d) a wounded tiger
- Before Mothi screamed, the jungle was
  - (a) quiet
  - (b) dark
  - (2) noisy
  - (d) terrifying

Passage 4

When Ibbotson returned from Pauri, I told him of the leopard's habit of going down the road between Rudraprayag and Golabrai on an average once in every five days. I convinced him that the only hope I now had of shooting the man-dater was by sitting over the road for ten nights: for, the leopard would be almost certain to use the road at least once during the period. Ibbotson agreed to my plan reluctantly, for I had already sat up many nights, and he was afraid that another ten nights on end would be too much for me.

- 113. Ibbotson was reluctant to agree to the 114. narrator's plan because he was afraid that
  - (a) the leopard would kill him
  - (b) the narrator would become very tired
  - (c) the narrator would kill the leopard
  - (d) the leopard might not come

The narrator wanted to

- (a) shoot the leopard
- (b) see the leopard
- (c) capture the leopard
- (d) frighten the leopard

Many poor farmers had been compelled to take up indigo cultivation when the British settlers were given the right to purchase and cultivate land in India. Many whites, therefore, either acquired land or advanced loans to poor farmers and pressurised them to forsake the farming of food-grains and other cash crops for indigo cultivation. Indigo export to Europe was lucrative for the British settlers who held a monopoly of this business. Within a few years, most of the fertile lands had undergone forcible indigo cultivation, resulting in a famine situation in Bengal. When the farmers declined to cultivate indigo, they were tortured, jailed and even killed.

- 115. The poor farmers in Bengal took up indigo 116. British settlers bought land in Bengal in order cultivation because
  - the government encouraged them to do
  - it was a money earning crop
  - they were forced to do so (c)
  - (d) this was the only crop that would grow in that region

- - introduce cultivation of each crops in (a) India
  - cultivate indigo (b)
  - settle down in India (c)
  - promote export business in Bengal (d)
- 117. Indigo export was profitable for the British settlers because
  - they had no competitors (a)
  - (b) the crop yield was good.
  - (c) they could oppress the farmers
  - the labour was cheap (d)

Passage 6

The first day out we met our first rhing, two of them, and I had the fright of my life. The pair had got our scent before we spotted them, and being bad tempered beasts, they rushed towards where they thought we were. Now it just happened that we were about fifty yards to one side of where they expected to find us - which was just as well, for I must say I did not like their look. As they thundered past, we crouched low and let them go. It did not strike me as a good opportunity for rhino photography. Anyhow I was much too frightened to have been able to hold the camera steady.

- 118. From the above passage it appears that rhinos [120.
  - (a) run away when they see human beings
  - (b) rush to attack when they smell human scent
  - hide under the bushes at the sight of human beings
  - stand still if they are not attacked
- 119. When the author saw a rhino for the first time, he was
  - excited (a)
- (b) firightened
- (c) charmed
- (d) surprised

- The author could not take the photographs of the rhinos because
  - he was too far away from rhinos
  - he was not carrying a good camera
  - it did not occur to him that he had a chance to do so
  - he did not like the look of rhinos (d)
